

Tree harvesting plan – March 2021

The trees not highlighted show the areas of pine trees that will be retained in the short term to complement the regrowth of native vegetation and preserve and improve local wildlife habitats. Protecting native flora and fauna is a key priority for this project.

